Birthright International Convention, 2018

June 8-10, 2018 was very special in the history of Birthright International. Volunteers, friends and supporters of Birthright gathered in Toronto to celebrate the 50th anniversary of its founding by Louise Summerhill in 1968. Fifty years of serving pregnant women and their babies. A celebration of the countless number of moms and babies saved from abortion. A celebration of the thousands of volunteers over the years, all over the world, who gave of themselves to protect life, give aid, provide a shoulder to cry on, and to give love, friendship and help to women who found themselves in troublesome situations or difficult circumstances. Fifty years of loving them and their babies into life. Birthright was there for them, and still is for all those to come to Birthright for help.

Thanks to three generous donors, four representatives from Burlington were able to attend the Convention, Board Chair, Roberta Baker, Director Marge Hennessey, and volunteers Jay and Barb Miller. The presentations were all geared toward volunteer training, including how to be more effective in helping clients, improving our communications, and working well with one another. Every speaker gave insightful talks that were encouraging, jammed packed with a lot of good information and with ideas for practical applications. On-going training is essential for volunteers and this weekend gave us plenty of food for thought and action.

Throughout the weekend, photos were viewed on screens highlighting the life of Louise Summerhill, her work and her family. It was wonderful to see, especially for some of us old-timers who were privileged to have known Louise. Birthright chapters contributed to a memory book that featured a page by each chapter with photos and date chartered. It was presented as a gift to the International office.

We all agreed this year's convention thoroughly lived up to our expectations. It was definitely worth the long drive to Toronto.

They Needed Help

It's often been said that there is no "typical" Birthright client, that each person comes with their own unique situation. That's true. Some clients need only one time help, others need help over many months. And it's not always the single mother. Couples are affected as well.

I was about to lock up the office one day recently and leave for the day when the telephone rang. The woman on the other end of the line explained that she and her partner had been referred to us by the pastor of a local church. I invited them to come in. She was pregnant and, despite his having a job, they were homeless. They had stayed at various places over the past few months, were expecting to move into an apartment soon, but needed a place to stay in the interim. Unfortunately some local shelters do not provide lodging for couples. They asked if there was any way we could help.

Birthright doesn't as a rule give financial assistance but will consider doing so depending on circumstances. I took a leap of faith, went with them to a local motel and paid for one night's lodging on Birthright's dime. The pastor of the church generously paid for the remainder of a week's stay. This couple was so very grateful and could not stop thanking all of us enough.

Helping this couple reminded me of another client several years ago. She had called and said she had enough money for her rent on her apartment but not enough to meet her full security deposit. Could we help? I called our treasurer for advice. Our bank account stood at $600 but he said to go ahead and give her the amount she needed. She was so relieved and thankful. On that very afternoon a donation arrived in the mail made out in the exact amount that we had given her. The Lord, indeed, always provides!

News & Notes

We are pleased to announce that we have received for the year 2018 a $1400 grant from the Bishop deGoesbriand Fund for Human Advancement. This grant will allow us to continue our advertising on the city busses and maintenance of our website. We are very grateful to the Fund committee for their confidence in us and sincerely thank them for this most generous award.

We Are Moving!!

Our prayers have been answered — we have found new office space just two doors up from our current location, at 301 College St., If all goes well we will move in on Sept. 1st. Our rent will be a $150/mo. more but the space is slightly larger. Unlike presently, we will not have kitchen facilities. We have a small fridge but a small microwave would be helpful. If you have one and not using it we would be happy to take it off your hands. Just give us a call.

Raffle at Birthright Convention

Our chapter held a raffle during the annual convention in June. A Cuddle Buddies Teddy Bear (donated by the Vermont Teddy Bear Co.) and a Vermont Gift Basket filled with Vermont goodies were the prizes. The winner of the bear (see below) was so excited as she is expecting a new grandbaby this fall. The winner of the gift basket was Jennifer Quish of Toronto who was equally as happy! The raffle earned us $123.00.
